JOHN EDWARD POILLON

Special to the Herald Tribune

STAMFORD, Conn., Sept. 5.—John Edward Poillon, whose ancestors settled in New York City in 1648, died today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Francis Guerrlich, of Palmer's Hill, in his seventy-ninth year. His wife, who was Miss Hester Thorne, died in 1925. Mr. Poillon was born in New York in 1848, and was the son of Cornelius Poillon, a ship builder. Besides his daughter, a son, Lieutenant Colonel Arthur Poillon, U. S. A., now stationed in New York, survives. Mr. Poillon was a veteran of the Seventh Regiment, New York National Guard.

POILLON—At Stamford, Conn., on Monday, September 5, 1927, John Edward, son of the late Cornelius and Julia Poillon, in his 79th year. Funeral private. Kindly omit flowers.
